

Erste Group Summer University Danubia 2009

28 June–29 July 2009

Partner Universities

University of Belgrade, Faculty of Economics
University of Economics, Bratislava
Academy of Economic Studies, Bucharest
Corvinus University of Budapest
Vadym Hetman Kyiv National
Economics University, Kiev
University of Economics, Prague
Vienna University of Economics and Business
University of Zagreb,
Faculty of Economics and Business

2009 Host Universities and Itinerary

Belgrade–Zagreb–Bucharest–Prague–Vienna

Choice of Two Programmes

Financial Services
Human Resource Management

Language of Instruction

English

Eligibility

The program is aimed at students who are currently enrolled at one of the partner universities in Belgrade, Bratislava, Bucharest, Budapest, Kiev, Prague, Vienna and Zagreb, and who can demonstrate advanced knowledge of their desired field of study.

Participation Fee

Students will be asked to make a minor contribution towards the total cost of the program.

Where to Apply

For further information, or to apply, please contact the international affairs office at your home university, or go to:
<http://danubia.wu-wien.ac.at>

Closing Date for Application

Vienna: 13 March 2009, 12.00 noon
All other universities: 10 April 2009

More Projects

The Danubia Summer University is just one expression of Erste Group's ongoing commitment to the economic and cultural development of Central and South East Europe. For more projects supporting arts and civil society in the region, go to <http://www.kontakt.erstegroup.net/>.

<http://danubia.wu-wien.ac.at>